TO MY MANY FRIENDS

Your friend,
J. R. Cummins.

W. A. CROMER.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Court Clerk subject to the action of the Republican Primary, to be held in August. This being the first time I have ever offered myself as a candidate for a county office.

I have always stood faithfully for the cause of my party as my ancestors did before me; who have been tax payers of this good old Country for more than a century; and further more, there has never been a one of my relatives on either side, that is my mother or my fathers people, that have ever held an office in this county.

Ladies and Gentlemen, if you don't know me I would ask of you to ask my neighbors and friends as to what kind of a man I am. I think I am known all over the county, at least by some people.

I have been trying to live a christian life for the last five years of my life and I will endeavor to do so the remainder of my days. I hope you will make an investigation of me, and if you think I am the kind of man for the office I now seek, I will appreciate anything you may do for me. And furthermore, let me say if I am nominated and elected to this office, I will endeavor to conduct myself and the office in a way that I will never cause you to regret of having given me your support. I wish to thank you in advance for any favors you may extend to me.

Very truly yours,

W. A. CROMER.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY BOTH LADIES AND GENTLEMEN

Your friend,

JOHNEY CLONTZ.

EXPRESS COMPANY HELPS EUROPEAN RELIEF.

Among the numerous agencies throughout the country co-operating with Herbert Hoover, Chairman of the European Relief Council, in his effort to raise $33,000,000 by means of a national collection for the relief of insipient starvation among 3,500,000 children in the war-stricken countries of Central Eastern Europe are the American Express Company and the American Railway Express Company.

Through the authorization of G. C. Taylor, president of both organizations, "INVISIBLE GUEST" certificates, certifying that the purchaser has salvaged the life of one or more of the little war victims, have been placed on sale at 25,000 of the company's officers throughout the United States. The cost of saving one child until the acute condition has been relieved by the next European harvest is $10.00, but donations of smaller sums are welcome, and a contribution of only $1.00, under the economical administration of the Council, will keep life in a little body for a month.

The European Relief Council is an amalgamation of the American Friends Service Committee, American Red Cross, American Relief Administration, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in American, Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. formed by Mr. Hoover for the elimination of duplicate effort in ministering to the starving children, to the end that the last penny of every dollar contributed might reach a hungry child in the form of food or medical service.

"INVISIBLE GUEST" certificates, which can be purchased for any amount from $1.00 up, are on sale at the local office of the American Railway Express Company. (J. A. Landrum, Agent) perhaps no entertainment ever given by the Butler Graded and High School afforded more genuine pleasure and satisfaction than that of last Friday evening, at the K. of P. Hall, and certain it is that the house was crowded with eager spectators, as never before.

As the program, giving the names of the participants, save those of the Tom Thumb wedding, have appeared in The Reformer, we deem it necessary to only mention the pretty little girls and handsome little boys who staged one of the most interesting features of the evening. The wedding, handsomely costumed for the occasion, was as follows: Mildred Ball, bride; Carl Edwin Myers, groom; Ronald Yelton, preacher. The attendants were Opal Blades Askew, Alpha Yelton, Nancy Poe, William Frye, Clyde Schalek and Leo Beckett.

A prettier scene of childhood in its innocence and beauty, could not be imagined. In fact the entertainment was one of the most interesting of the season, and we regret that we haven't space to give each one engaged in it the individual mention and praise that they so richly deserve—Penelope Reformer.

A JUDICIAL INQUIRY.
A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade, says he has often heard druggists ask a customer, who wished to buy a cough medicine, whether it was for a child or an adult and if for a child, they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it for colds, croup and whooping cough it is unsurpassed.

The following were chosen for the Grand Jury at the Feb. term of court:

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS RED BLOOD

Restores the Quality of Your Blood. Brings Back Your Color and Renews Vitality.

Personal charm is like a light. It sheds its rays everywhere. Is the light of your personal charm hidden under the bushel of bad blood? Instead of habitual smiles do you wear a tired look—almost a frown? Do you tire easily? Are you pale and lacking in vitality energy and ambition?

You are not really ill. Your blood has become weak and sluggish. It is half starved. What you need is the blood making qualities of that splendid tonic Pepto-Mangan a little while you will feel a big improvement. The smiles will come back. People will see a difference in you. You will make friends again. You will have plenty of rich, red blood and feel stronger.

Pepto-Mangan has been building red blood for years. Physicians prescribe it right along. It has just the ingredients that saved blood needs. Sold in liquid and tablet form. Both have the same effect. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name, "Gude's" Pepto-Mangan, is on the package.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—Operations of the moonshiner and bootlegger, described as a challenge to the State's power to maintain peace and order, form the subject of a proclamation made public today by Gov. Morrow, along with a personal letter which he is sending to every sheriff, county attorney and chief of police in the State.

Through his proclamation the Governor calls upon the co-operative efforts of all citizens to make their will "superior to the purposes of an outlawed traffic."

The proclamation follows:

To the People of Kentucky,

Greetings:
The strength of any State is determined by the courage and character of its citizenship. To lay the power of the State to enforce law and maintain order is bravely, notoriously and impudently challenged by the scoundrels and open violation of the prohibition law. The moonshiner and bootlegger and those allied with them are determined to make their will superior to the law of the people of the State.

The open violation of the prohibition law brings to Kentucky and its people not only the known evil of intemperance, but there has come with it, through it and as a part of it, the intimidation of men and women, threats of violence against all who oppose perjury and subornation of perjury and past experiences of the country shows that those engaged in this business do not balk even at debauchery of public officials charged with the enforcement of the law.

APPEAL IS MADE.

"This law-breaking power strikes at the source of all public authority. Confronted with this situation I call to the conscience of the commonwealth. I appeal to every law-enforcing officer to stand by the law of his State and to exert the utmost energy and determination to its execution and enforcement."

"I call upon the people of Kentucky—upon its men and women, upon the leaders of thought and conduct—to unite, to co-operate and to throw their irresistible power upon the side of law, order and decency."

"The will of the people of Kentucky must and shall be made superior to the purposes of an outlawed traffic. The power of the bootlegger and the moonshiner must be made to bend before the authority of the sovereign law of the Commonwealth."

"This the 24th day of January, 1921. EDWIN P. MORROW, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky."

In his letter to the peace and prosecuting officer the Governor says:

"As one of the chief law-enforcing agents of your county and as a fellow public servant chargeable also with the enforcement of the laws of the Commonwealth, I write you concerning the present shameful violation of the prohibition law in Kentucky."

"I do not exaggerate when I say that the bootlegger and moonshiner, and those allied with them, today challenge law and order in Kentucky. The impu-tent, brazen and determined violation of this law is rapidly bringing into contempt all law; is weakening public authority and lessening the confidence of the people of Kentucky in their laws, their courts, and their public officials."

"I believe in the high integrity; in the capacity and courage of the State's law-enforcing agents, and I feel that you will be glad to lead every power of your energy and your office to the suppression of this outbreak of lawlessness."

"In the enforcement of this law I believe you will have the support of the right thinking men and women of Kentucky. I believe that a quickened and aroused public sentiment will rally to your assistance."

"We can and we must accept the challenge so flauntingly offered, and having accepted it we must re-establish the supremacy of the laws of the land."

"Let me know how I can be of service to you. Most sincerely yours,

EDWIN P. MORROW,
Governor of Kentucky."

Prominent Hog Raiser Says Prices Charged Are Unwarranted—Makes His Own Hog Food, With Better Results

"That he is all through paying fancy prices for stock foods and hog remedies and that he is raising some of the best hogs ever placed on the market" was the statement made recently by E. H. Beckstead, well known hog raiser and authority on live stock.

Mr. Beckstead's hogs are the envy of his neighbors, and have "topped the market" for several years in Iowa. He states that for years he bought high priced hog food and hog remedies, but he is all through paying extravagant prices for what he can make himself.

He states that what the hogs need are minerals, and tells the secret of his wonderful success by explaining that he takes about five pounds of ordinary mineraline (which is pure concentrated minerals and costs only a couple of dollars) and mixes same with enough bran or filler to make a hundred pounds. All hogs and especially brood sows require minerals, as they keep them free from worms, and in the pink of condition, and are essential to the hogs growth and a well balanced ration. This inexpensive mixture placed in a sheltered box where the hogs can get at it as they need it, will produce far better results than any high priced so called stock foods.

Send two dollars to The Mineraline Chemical Co., 1638 North Wells street, Chicago, Ill., and they will forward you by prepaid parcel post, enough mineraline to make a full hundred pounds.

WM. S. HART
"Square Deal Sanderson"

The real Bill Hart—hero of every small boy from Maine to California and from Canada to the Gulf—beloved by all who care for red-blooded action on the screen.

In several of his recent films, Mr. Hart has doffed chaps and six shooters, appearing as a convict in one, and in another leaving the Western plains for the asphalt of the city street. But now he's back in harness, astride of a trusty horse and with his wide-brimmed Stetson atop his head. He riots through a picture that is full to the brim of action, excitement and heroic deeds. There are lively scraps, quick shooting, all the characteristic incidents of life as it was lived in the yesterday of the West.

There is hard riding, fighting and gunplay aplenty. There is romance and the breeziness of the West in every foot of film.

It is a picture to see and see again and to remember because it is so graphic and withall so wholesome.

THEY APPEAL TO OUR SYMPATHIES.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. Many such however, have been completely restored to health by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach, invigorate the liver and improve the digestion. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. When you have any trouble with your stomach, give them a trial.

The (Cin) Post carried a picture Tuesday of Everett Reynolds of this county, who is Kentucky's champion corn grower for 1920. It was accompanied by an article from this boy telling just how he raises corn that won the prize. Everett is now attending the Mt. Vernon graded school and he praises our efficient county Agt. Robert F. Spence for valuable instructions given him.

Judge Bethurum is waging his usual fight on the liquor traffic and gave very emphatic instructions to the grand jury to the end. IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

Thought His Time Had Come, he says

Springfield Man Says His Condition Was Alarming Before He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and I have already been relieved of a condition that was getting to be alarming," declared A. J. Killis, a carpenter, living at 27 North William Street, Springfield, Ohio, the other day. "For two years previous to taking Tanlac I had never been able to work more than four or five days at a time. I had no appetite and actually dreaded to eat, for even the little I managed to force down bloated me up with gas and made me sick at the stomach and so short of breath I sometimes thought my time had come. I had spells of dizziness and was so nervous at times I couldn't hold a nail long enough to drive it, and felt dull and languid all the time. During the winter of 1918 I was unable to hit a lick of work, and the following winter it was not much better.

"But, it's a fact I haven't had a touch of indigestion since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac. I have a corking big appetite and eat things I never dared touch before and everything agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are steady as a clock. I feel fine all the time and never lose a day from work on account of sickness. Everybody I meet these days wants to know what has got me to looking so much better, and I am more than glad to tell them, Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Mt. Vernon by Chas. C. Davis; in Brodhead by the Brodhead Pharmacy; and in Livingston by R. G. Webb; in Burr by W. M. Owens.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.
You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.
You don't feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never falls below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.
For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.
It is important that you use only straight wheat flour (not self-rising flour) and pure baking powder if you wish to obtain the gluten demanded by sound health.

Calumet Gold Cake Recipe

WM. S. HART STAS IN MOVIES AT
BOONE WAY THEATRE FEB. 15th

Before I began acting I had spent a good many seasons on the legitimate, playing leading roles in the "The Christian," "Ben Hur," "The Squaw Man," "The Virginian," "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," "Romeo and Juliet," "MacBeth," and "Lady of Lyons"—in the latter three with Julia Arthur.

And I often wondered in those days, how I looked to the people out in front. Yes, I was genuinely curious to see myself as others saw me, but then didn't seem at all likely I would ever have the opportunity.

Then came the motion pictures and with them a desire on my part to visualize the characters of the great West, the types of rugged men I had known and admired as a child, and which I knew were fast passing away.

I looked at myself in the mirror and I said: "No, my son, you'll never do; that face of yours will look worse on screen than it does in the looking glass."

Why, even when Mr. Ince first wanted me to do picture work I laughed at the idea. "With this face?" I asked. He wired back to me something to the effect that my face would prove my fortune.

By some means I was enticed and I did my first picture. With more nervousness than if I'd been facing a brace of guns in the hands of a sure shot from the western cowtowns, I saw myself on the screen. Oh no. I wasn't happy. I imagined that people would throw things at my picture face. But somehow they didn't, and then I began to get notices and criticisms which said that my rugged features, determined aspect, and so on, were just the things for the characters I was portraying. Then I felt better.

So time has gone on and I've been doing my best to improve my work. I've studied my own physiognomy till I know every line and expression. And I can control them all. Nowadays I don't feel quite so dissatisfied when I see myself as others see me. Perhaps I am the type—at least the people seem to be satisfied. And after all is said and done, that is what counts. And I feel that in a way I am doing a service by perpetuating in the celluloid the figures of the old West—the men who went thru experiences that fall to the lot of all trail-blazers and pathfinders. And I'm thankful too, that what I've tried and am trying to do, is appreciated by the public. That's the recompense for the work and study and everything that goes with it. It means more than money, let me tell you.

No, I'm not satisfied yet. I feel I can keep improving my

You see, Square Deal is a Westerner who is brave and daring. I like such characterizations because they appeal to me as a man, and my friends like them as well. When Square Deal, who is a rough cowboy, learns after a tragedy of the plains that a defenseless girl is battling to save her ranch from a powerful and influential scoundrel, he does what any brave man would do in the circumstances—go to her aid.

Of course, to accomplish his work, Square Deal is obliged to impersonate the girl's dead brother, but this is a trifling thing for him until he learns to love the girl, and then he finds it a stupendous task to expose his imposture, because he fears he may lose her love. But she does not believe his avowals, for she cannot understand the situation in which he finds himself.

When Square Deal finds the scoundrels are doing their utmost to ruin the girl he loves, his fighting soul asserts itself and naturally, there are things doing every minute. I think the screen public will like the way he gets the better of his enemies. The story is logical and I have done my best to make the picture artistically a success. It ought to be a winner and I heartily believe it will satisfy the public as it does me.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS:

LOST—My job as porter at the Rockcastle Hotel. Mollie's gone. Looking for a job.

My understanding is that the stockholders in Rockcastle county meet this year to hire a county job. I would like to have this job, not that I need the pay to raise the babies on but to help educate other people as I have been doing all my life.

I must be kept busy. I can do a little bit of anything; I've hoboed: built rail roads; worked on a farm; built turpikes; built houses; garages; and, oh, you stock barn.

I have seen both sides of life have made whisky and sold whisky, got full of it and got others full; been in jail, been out of jail; been lied to and lied on, made some money, and lost some money, and given away more than I have lost. Now when the day comes round for the stockholders of this county to select the man they want to hire as county judge, think this matter over, and if you want to make a trade with Bill come in or send your praxies and they will be cast to satisfy your wishes.

Yours for business and the betterment of Rockcastle county.
